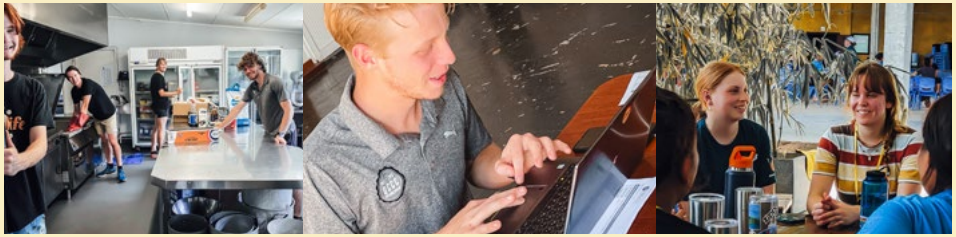
What is camplife?

Camplife is a one-year residential Christian camping ministry Gap Year experience at a busy camping venue in the Gold Coast Hinterland of Queensland. Our paid Camplife team members will develop basic skills and gain experience in hospitality and service across all areas of camping ministry while living on-site at QCCC Tamborine Mountain and will have the opportunity to work in partnership with CrossLife – A Baptist Church (three campuses across the northern Gold Coast, 30-45 mins from camp) and Vertec Adventures (Outdoor Education providers at QCCC Tamborine) as well as in the various aspects of the QCCC camping environment to explore and develop ministry experience..



Who is camplife for?

Our mission is to create life-changing experiences through hospitality, service, partnership and outdoor education. We believe the camps hosted by QCCC offer a uniquely rich environment for growth and development and we want to share with young adults from our broader church community, who are transitioning into the workplace, higher education or into ministry roles the opportunity to take on a truly formational and transformational gap-year experience.

QCCC Camplife might be for you if:

- You love camping, Creation and the great outdoors!
- You want to explore a career in Christian Camping.
- You are looking for an interesting and positive 'gap-year' experience before taking on a career, University, or other higher education.
- You are interested in Christian ministry and would like to take time to grow, learn, practice and be intentionally invested into by our Camplife team.
- You are interested in the hospitality industry and would like to get a broad overview, with the potential for an apprenticeship after 12 months of general development.
- You are interested in Christian mission and and want to experience it in different settings.
- You want to grow in your personal adventure of following Jesus alongside other like-minded young adults.
- You would like to get a camping statement of attainment 'micro-credential' that would count toward further study in Christian Ministry and Theology at a Cert IV level.

Is this for you?

What does camplife involve?

The Camplife Gap Year experience will be made up of 38hrs/week paid employment (informed by the Amusements, Events and Recreation Award) with QCCC Tamborine. An example of how a Camplife Team Member's week may look:

- Three-and-a-half days per week QCCC Camp duties, (housekeeping, kitchen hand, other areas as required) This may vary across the year in response to requirements of Camp duties and major training opportunities such as ministry/mission trips etc.
- One half-day per week classroom-based training, discipleship and development.
- One day per week camping/ministry/mission involvement with QCCC or ministry partners (CrossLife, Vertec etc).

Accommodation will be onsite at QCCC Tamborine with rent and utility fees deducted from wage.

Education Outcomes will include:

- Certificate IV in Christian Ministry and Theology (Camping Ministry)
- (Optional) Certificate IV in Christian Ministry and Theology (Ministry with; Children, or Youth, or Small Groups).

Course units of study are nationally accredited through, and Statement of Attainment issued by, Malyon Vocational Training (RTO Code 30002). Any study fees to be covered by student.

Ready to take on the challenge of living in community, serve others, grow in discipleship, and work hard whilst living in the beautiful Gold Coast Hinterland? Camplife could be for you!

What are the camplife requirements?

- Applicants must hold a valid paid Working With Children Check Blue Card or be able to attain one prior to commencing employment.
- As it is a requirement to be an adult to take responsibility for groups of children, interns must turn 18 before June 30 in their first year of the internship.
- Willingness to work rostered weekends and weekdays as part of the 38 hours of work per week.
- A desire and a heart for Christian ministry and serving others.

How do I apply for camplife?
